

I have received an e mail from the Indiana attory general stating that businesses I already have a relationship with could call my home number as often as they want if this is passed.

I do not want unsolicited phone calls, whether I am already doing business with the company or not.